PRESS STATEMENT

Maryland Amateur Athletic Union (MD AAU) will honor achievements of Team Fire Elite's (TFE) members with 2014 Outstanding Coaches & Athletes award

Waldorf, MD, October 15, 2014 – TFE will join MD AAU's legacy when the District salutes “The Best of the Best” in the region with the “2014 Outstanding Coaches, Athletes, & Volunteers” awards. The acclaimed event will be hosted on Sunday, November 9, 2014 from 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm at the Martins East Banquet Facility located at 9000 Pulaski Highway, Baltimore, Maryland 21220. Over 200 of the district's outstanding members will be recognized. TFE was selected to receive 7 of these special accolades.

Kevin E. Dade, Sr., 11U & 12U Head Coach and Scott Stewart, 10U & 13U Head Coach were selected to receive the 2014 Outstanding Coach award for their unwavering dedication and exemplary contribution to the youth of TFE and the community. Jamar Curtis, Jr., Amir J. Dade, Tremaine Chesley, Chance Clark, & Xavion Jones, TFE members, will be presented with the 2014 Outstanding Athlete award for their accomplishments in basketball, academics, and community service and social development activities during TFE's 2013-2014 season. TFE honorees are scheduled to attend with family and friends during this special occasion.

Team Fire Elite is committed to enlightening the lives of aspiring athletes, their families and the warm fabric of our community. We specialize in HIBIT the new effective way of basketball training that prepares you for intense situational game play. Just as importantly, TFE encourages each young male to pursue a holistic lifestyle. Basketball is what brings them together but community service projects, field trips to learn more about history and culture, celebrating academic achievement, and bonding activities like our visit with the residents of Morningside House of St. Charles is what has made a positive impact in the development of our young men within this generation and the TFE family.
