Team Fire Elite AAU Basketball Organization Donates “Gender Based Care Baskets” to the residents of MorningSide House of St. Charles

Waldorf, MD – Players, Management, and family members of Team Fire Elite’s AAU Basketball Organization collaborated through fundraising and personal contributions to donate “Gender Based Care Baskets” to designated residents of MorningSide House of St. Charles Facility in Charles County, Waldorf, MD.

Team Fire Elite is one of the first premier youth AAU basketball organizations in the Charles County area to demonstrate the discipline of Service – The Act of Giving Back to the community to increase social awareness and build a sense of appreciation of the community/world to which we belong. Each team member personally delivered & presented gifts to the gracious seniors who received all of the donations with a warm welcome.

The organization is committed to making a positive impact in the development of young men within this generation. Team Fire Elite’s goals are to improve both athletic and academic skills, while enhancing invaluable life skill sets such as leadership, good sportsmanship, accountability and responsibility while equipping our Scholar Athletes with effective mechanisms to empower them to become “Extraordinary Leaders” & “Social Agents of Change” both on and off the court.

Age divisions for the current season are: Boys 3U, 5U, 6U, 7U, & 8U with basketball players ranging from 6-14 years of age. The teams are coached by Kevin E. Dade, Sr., Thomas Chesley, Scott Stewart, Brian Hawkins, and Terry Barnes, along with team managers – Nakiea W. Dade & Dana Clarke.

On Saturday, November 23rd through the 24th, 2013, Boys 6U & 8U teams will participate in the A Game Supershootout Tournament at the Maryland Juniors Sport Center located in Jessup, Maryland. December 7, 2013 through March 7, 2014, 3U-8U teams are scheduled to participate in the 9th Annual Capital Events League located in Oxon Hill, Maryland.
